COCKRELL AND CLEVELAND.
The Missouri Senator Explains His Recent Visit to the White House.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 6.—The following letter was received by Mr. Wiley O. Cox of this city, yesterday, from Senator Cockrell, agent the appointment of John R. Walker as district attorney for Western Missouri:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—My Dear Mr. Cox: The correspondents are at work about a supposed reconciliation with the president. There has been no reconciliation, and no cause to require reconciliation. The president exercises his clear constitutional right in appointing whom he pleases, and to seek his information and advice from whom he chooses, and it seemed to be clear that he desired none from me. I could not volunteer or force my advice upon him. I left him free to do as he pleased. When he sent for me last week as a matter of course I responded. When we began inquiring about applicants for United States marshal in Western district Missouri I told him frankly and fully my position and my reasons for it, and that I would not make any recommendation of any one for any office that would freely give him any information I had about any one.

Our interview was entirely pleasant and friendly. He made no criticism or objection to my position. He made inquiry about the applicants for marshal in the western district, and about applicants in eastern district for marshal and attorney. I told him what I knew. He made no reference to attorney in western district. Mr. Walker's name was not mentioned directly or indirectly by the president or me. I made no recommendation of anyone for any place—expressed no preference for any one. I simply did my duty in giving him what information I had about the applicants he named—no more. He mentioned no postoffice matters. I talked to him frankly and freely—just as I would to you—asked for nothing—expressed no preference for anyone. Just confined myself to his inquiries and in return gave him some data about newspaper reports as to his alleged expressions about senators and representatives. I wrote that that you may know the truth and not believe the unfounded statements of correspondents. Your friend, F. M. COCKRELL.

Indians Republicans.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 6.—The Republican state committee has sent out circulars to local committeemen throughout the state, instructing them to adopt the "block and Neigborhood" system for voting at the coming state election. This arrangement requires that each city shall be divided into blocks, and one man held responsible in each district for getting out the vote. Chairman Bowdy will visit each district and explain the plan of organization.

Gold in Missouri.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 6.—W. R. Nichols of Pickering, Mo., arrived in the city last night, and states that the inhabitants of that town are jubilant over the fact that placer gold has been discovered in a stream of water near that place. A sample of it has been sent to the state geologist at Jefferson City for analysis. A portion of it was taken to a jeweler at Maryville, Mo., who, after an examination, said that it would assay $1,000 to the ton.

To Fight the Bond Issue.

opportunity to all parties who believe their interests affected, to be heard before the committee report its action to the senate. He asked that the resolution should lie on the table, and said he would call it up soon for the purpose of making some remarks upon it. It was so ordered.

Mr. Berry, Democrat of Arkansas, moved to refer to the judiciary committee the anti-option bill introduced some time ago by Mr. George, Democrat of Mississippi, and now on the table.

Mr. Washburn, Republican of Minnesota, moved to amend the motion so as to refer the bill to the committee on agriculture, but said that in the absence of Mr. George, he would not press the amendment, but let the bill remain on the table. After some further colloquy, Mr. Berry's motion was unacted on, and the bill still remains on the table.

The house bill to repeal the federal election laws was then—at 1 p.m.—taken up. The bill went over till today, and the senate, at 4 P.M., after a short executive session, adjourned.

The Hawaiian Resolution.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—It has developed that quite a number of amendments to the pending Hawaiian resolution in the house are awaiting introduction. One of these is by Representative Black of Illinois and another by Mr. Cockrell of Texas. Those, with the Holman amendment, will make three propositions differing from the May 4, 1868, That act demonstrated the political suicide of the Hawaiian monarchy. "The honor of the American name," said Mr. Boutelle, "is being dragged in the dust by Grover Cleveland, W. G. Graham, James H. Blount and Minister Willis. I have no words to express my contempt for the policy of treachery, duplicity and false pretense. You on the other side can not condone this outrage. You can not make this begin!" [Applause.]

Proceeding, he characterized Mr. Graham as a "disappointed and apostate secretary of state," who, in conjunction with the president, sought not only to upset and overturn an American government, but to degrade the American navy by putting it under the control of a Georgia politician, or to get some one who would hang down the American flag." [Applause.] When that order was written, whether by the secretary of the navy or the president, the constitution was violated and he who penned it rendered himself liable to impeachment.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—In the supreme court of the district yesterday the suit of E. D. Chatwick of the Cherokee nation, to enjoin the sale of the bonds to R. T. Provisional Government Recognized.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—United States Minister Baker has transmitted to the state department a decree of the government of Nicaragua dated December 25, recognizing the provisional government of Vicente Barrios, president of Honduras. Nicaragua is declared the ally of the provisional government under Barrios.

For an Elastic Currency.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Representative Warner, Democrat of New York, has introduced a bill for an elastic currency. It contains many provisions of the bill which was reported by the sub-committee on banking and currency as a measure for repeal of the law of foreign intervention.

"We are after Stevens," said he, "and we think we will get him."

"By the peaceful conquest of extirpation," said he, "but four-tenths of per cent of all the lands in the Hawaiian Islands now remained to the native population. Never had there been such a peaceful conquest in the history of the world. American intelligence and energy were paramount there. Let them work out their own salvation. Let us declare for a policy of non-interference by the United States and against tolerating foreign intervention by other governments and the supremacy of brain and division in those islands is assured. Mr. Black's brilliant oration was loudly applauded.

Mr. Van Vorhis, Republican of New York, a member of the foreign affairs committee, declared in favor of annexation.

Mr. Grinnell, Democrat of Michigan, closed the debate for the afternoon with an argument in favor of the Mesney resolution, and at 5 P.M. the house recessed until 8 o'clock.

Only four members were present when Mr. Hall, Democrat of Minnesota, began to speak in support of the administration, and half a dozen others came in after, and there was considerable advantage in the galleries. Mr. Hall charged that the revolution was the result of a conspiracy made possible by the covert aid of Mr. Stevens, and the presence of the United States troops. He informed the policy of the administration in its efforts to fight the wrong done to the men through the conduct of the United States minister. A tax law was passed which will place in every honest hand a whip with which to scourge J. L. Stevens through the land.

Mr. Post, Republican of Illinois, contended that the attempt of the administration to restore a deloused and discarded queen could not be condemned or wiped out by the passage of a partisan resolution.

Mr. Stillings, Democrat of Mississippi, also took the position that Mr. Stevens was a party to the revolution and should be censured by the house.

Mr. Lacy, Republican of Iowa, and Mr. Stockdale, Democrat of Mississippi, were the last speakers. At 10:30 p.m. the house adjourned.

A SUSPECTED OFFICER

Is Placed On the Stand by Defense.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Daniel Coughlin's attorneys attacked Frank Bardean's testimony in the Cronin trial yesterday. Bardean told, when on the stand for the prosecution, of seeing Coughlin in Edgewater on the night of May 4. Walter Eaton was mentioned as the engineer in charge of the plant that night. The defense yesterday called Engineer Eaton to the stand, and he testified to having had several conversations with Bardean previous to May 4. The latter had testified that he had never spoken to Eaton. Eaton said that he did not see Bardean at the plant on the night of May 4, but by cross-examination it was shown that Eaton admitted to Prosecuting Attorney Bottom in his office that Bardean probably was at the plant that night. witness was almost made to admit, on cross-examination, that many people came to the electric light plant on pleasant nights, and that he took no notice of such visitors.

Joseph McKenna, who is a new witness in the case, was called by the defense. He is an intimate friend of Andrew Hoy, and was said by Mrs. Hoy to have visited at her home frequently during the winter and spring of 1889. He said he had been there but once during the time mentioned and that was to attend a wake. He said he had heard Mrs. Hoy call her husband an anarchist and asserted that he threw the bomb at the time of the Haymarket riot.

Attorneys Bonobou and Bottom became involved in a dispute during the proceedings. Judge Tuthill fined Lawyer Donohue $50, but reconsidered his action. Police Officer Michael O'Connor had been called to the stand. He told of having been with McKenna on the night of May 4 and admitted on cross-examination that he had been looking up data for his testimony as he had been told that he was suspected of complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin.
